Today's guests were the family and friends of new GRK president Jack Arney: Carol Arney, Kenny Hays, Melanie Means, Darla Turpen, and Tom Ketty.

Team winners/money to allocate:

Slam Dunk	$1000
A Team	800
Johnson & Johnson	600
Super Ks	400
Builders	200

Bill Elgin was elected to the GRK board of trustees to replace the resigning Michell Ellis. Carl Linge and Randy Conner retired from the board.

GRKiwanians of the Year are Sharon and Don Johnson! Congratulations for an honor well deserved.

New Southwind Lt. Gov. Patti Sensmeier installed the slate of GRK officers listed on the mast-head below, and made several comments about Kiwanis International and her goals.

KI's vision is to strengthen clubs by retaining members.

Your own dues help 206 kids.

Each volunteer hour is worth $25.40.

International convention in Indianapolis will be June 17-20, 2020.

Let's increase the use of online tools/online Kiwanis clubs.

Jack Arney updated us on some rule changes and then outlined his 2019-2020 goals.

Rule changes:

- 2 pts. for volunteering at any charity that has spoken to GRK in the last 12 months
- 5 pts. for helping another Kiwanis club
- 2 pts. for housekeeping, only for those who arrive early to set up the room

Goals:

- Have guests at 50% of meetings
- 15 new members, net of 5 more
- Get Terry White elected as Kiwanis International Vice-President
- Establish Key Club at Evansville Christian School
- Work with Patti Sensmeier to cooperate more with other clubs
- Improve fellowship

Northside Club sponsors the Christmas parade on N. Main on Nov. 24, and will need our help.

Tri-State Kiwanis night at the Thunderbolts will be December 7.
