This morning's Zoom guest was Ruth Hahn.

Melinda Remley, Southwind Lt. Gov., was at our meeting today to install new officers (names in lower right corner) and also recognized the GRK board of directors.

New president Dick LeDuc talked about his goals for the year, which include keeping GRK focused on helping kids be kids and assisting those kids in becoming successful as well as Circle K and Key Club activities. He said, "If we stay focused, Green River Kiwanis will again succeed in helping kids and families for years to come."

Martha Seal noted that team winners had dispersed their monies to their favorite charities and causes, and amazingly, there was no duplication! The disbursements are as follows:

Wild Oates $ 1000.00 to:

Ambucs, Cops Connecting with Kids, and United Caring Shelters

The Triplets $ 800.00 to:

Epworth UMC, Granted, and Salvation Army

4 Kids $600.00 to:

Aurora, Dream Center, and EVSC Foundation Hangers

Mustangs $ 400.00 to:

Community One and UE Ace CARE

Lucky 7 $ 200.00 to:

Point Man Ministries of Newburgh

GRK Board $ 1765.00 to:

The Thornton Patberg Scholarship Fund, and the purchase of an AED for Epworth UMC.

New teams have been assigned and will meet next week.

three filters.

- The three filters?
- Before telling something about others, it is good to take the time to filter what you want to say. The first filter is that of truth. Have you verified that what you are going to tell me is true?
- No, I only heard about it ...
- Very well. So you don't know if it's true. Let's continue with the second filter, that of kindness. Is there something good you want to tell me about my friend?
- Oh no, on the contrary!
- So you want to tell me bad things about my friend and you don't even know if they're true. Maybe you can still pass the test. There is the third filter left, that of utility. Does it help me to know what this friend may have done?
- Not really.
- So, concluded Socrates, what you wanted to tell me is neither true, nor good, nor useful. So why did you want to tell me?"

The GRK board will handle Dream Center meals for the months of October and November.

Jay Inman is encouraging all eligible GRKiwanians to sign up to donate blood.

Jack Arney had several announcements.

Special Olympics is November 6 at Diamond Lanes. Help is needed for the 8-11 and 12-3 shifts. Volunteers will have to present an ID and be masked.

Jack is also working to set up a Key Club at Evansville Christian School.

Thought of the week, also courtesy of Jack Arney:

"Socrates had the reputation of being of great wisdom. One day someone came to visit him and said:

-You know what I just heard about your friend?

- Wait a moment, replied Socrates, before you tell me, I would like to give you a test, that of the
