December 8, 2021

Upcoming Christmas events:

Santa breakfast at the Caldwell YMCA

Dec. 11

—Shopping for gifts for 30 kids from Glenwood School Dec. 1 after our meeting at Target on Burkhardt

—Wrapping of these gifts Dec. 1 at 11:00 at the Johnson house, 3800 Herndon Dr.

Senior Project Dec. 17-18 for deliveries—the pickup location is the same as for the poinsettias—3601 Washington Ave.

The Dream Center needs our help with a new project—they are going to offer an online store for parents to shop for toys for their kids at much discounted rates. Donations of new toys are needed, and drivers will be needed to help with deliveries.

Sylvia DeVault told us we will be holding a BUG program at the Dream Center on December 16. This will be done a little bit differently since the Dream Center won't have grades to calculate, but it will be a very worthwhile experience for the kids. The time is 4:30-6:00, and the program will be followed by a dinner.

Board meeting at Crossroads Christian Church on December 10, 7:00 a.m.

GRK will once again be helping the Ritzy's Fantasy of Lights collect admission fees—on December 19 and 20. There will be 2 shifts: 5-7 and 7-9.

Poinsettia sales are nearing their close, but there are still two more delivery dates:

December 17; deadline for orders to be delivered this date is Monday, December 13 no later than noon

December 21; deadline for orders to be delivered this date is Thursday, December 16 no later than noon

Today's meeting was our annual auction to benefit the Santa Clothes Club. According to GRK treasurer Kim Higgins, today's auction grossed $3340!
